BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Muswell Young Musicians is a Saturday Music school in the heart of Muswell Hill. We are passionate about music education and provide an inclusive setting where young people can enjoy high-quality music making and grow as well-rounded musicians.

We offer children the opportunity to learn an instrument, play in an ensemble and attend musicianship classes to support their learning. These classes stand at the centre of what we do, and nurture the key skills of pitch, rhythm & pulse, improvisation and musical literacy while promoting high engagement levels and a sense of fun through making music with peers. The programme, which draws on the teaching methods of Zoltán Kodály and Émile Dalcroze, maximises the cognitive, social and emotional benefits of music education by developing high-order thinking, team-working skills and meaningful creativity.
